

The FCC must act to
block Sinclair
Broadcasting's
blatent attempt to swing the November
elections with
fabricated news
stories.

If Sinclair
broadcasts the anti-Kerry
propaganda piece
"Stolen Honor"
without airing
pro-Kerry material,
chosen by directly
by the Kerry
Campaign, the
station will be in direct conflict with
its responsibility
as a steward of the public airwaves.

"In conflict with
responsibility" is
my generous interpretation. In truth, they will be
guilty of sedition
against the Constitution, having
then abused a public
trust, a monopoly
over a public
resource granted by the government. The purpose of that
abuse having been to undermine a
democratic election
with the lies of
fanatics, under the
guise of news
coverage.

Network vice president Mark Hyman
made comments
characterizing
networks that do not
air the story "as
acting like
Holocaust deniers".

These are clearly
the kind of

accusations that
could only emanate
from someone
unconcerned with Fact, and very concerned with
advancing a Partisan
Agenda.

Do not expect Mr.
Hyman to apologize
for a lack of
credibility in
anything broadcast
by Sinclair. He is certainly not a Journalist. The
network certainly
serves no one
besides its owners
when it functions as an unquestioning
propaganda organ at
their behest.

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to
air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election
is a clear example
of the dangers of
media consolidation.

Sinclair's actions
show why Chairman
Powell's policies,
weakening ownership
rules, are bankrupt.

Should Sinclair
proceed with the
broadcasts, the FCC
should act to revoke
the Company's licenses, at every station which makes
that broadcast,
unless it offers
equal time to the Kerry Campaign. And
those offers must be
in good faith, in
the same quality of
time slots as the

anti-Kerry hit
piece, with
adequate assistance,
with due warning,
and with the
complete cooperation
necessary to do so
in time for the election.

If this does not happen, Sinclair's
investment in TV
broadcasting outlets
should be forfeit.

Thank You.
